

THE FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS

I believe that our most basic and sacred duty is to God, and that the foundation of our lives should be the teachings of the Bible. I believe that the rights of the individual are sacred and that the government is the servant of the people. I believe that we should respect the rights of all men and women, and that we should strive for peace and justice for all.

I believe that the family is the basic unit of society, and that we should strive to maintain the sanctity of marriage. I believe that we should respect the rights of all men and women, and that we should strive for peace and justice for all.

Place of Meditation
Eisenhower Chapel
Abilene, Kansas

March 29, 1969, Dwight D. Eisenhower passed away and was laid to rest in this Chapel at his request, because of his love for Kansas, its people and Abilene. Outstanding element of its interior design are the richly colored windows, the Travertine wall panels, and the walnut woodwork.

I am spending two weeks visiting Marylou. It is no hotter here than it was in Connecticut and not nearly so humid.

Hope you are keeping well. Love from both of us.
